The Hague, 20 May 2026.

Dear Mrs Subašić,

On 27 June 2017, we met at the Palace of Justice in The Hague, shortly before the Court of Appeal's ruling in the case brought by your association against the Dutch State. Journalist Naida Ribić made the introduction and translated.

My book De doofpotgeneraal (Bosnian: General zataskavanja) has appeared in English under the title The Cover-up General. The English edition was published in 2024 and launched at the Banned Books Museum. The PDF is freely available worldwide. I am enclosing a printed copy with this letter, nine years after this meeting.

The book was cited in 2015 by your association in its case against the Dutch State, which culminated in the 2019 Supreme Court ruling establishing partial Dutch liability for some 350 victims of the genocide (ECLI:NL:HR:2019:1223). Further developments since then, including the response of Judge Solomy Balungi Bossa of the International Criminal Court to a question I asked her in The Hague in March 2026, are documented at generalzataskavanja.com.

I wish you every success in your work.

With my respectful regards,

Edwin Giltay
